KIDNAPPED CHILD IS BROUGHT HOME

Mr. and Mrs. George McDonald Get Possession of Little Daughter, Lois, After Eight Years.

LITTLE GIRL REPORTED DEAD.

County Court in Missouri Gives Decree Which Closes Long Fight Between Girl's Father and Uncle.

Little Lois McDonald, who has been the central figure in the sensational kidnapping case, which has been attracting attention all over the country, has been returned to her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. George McDonald of this city. The parents and the child returned here from Missouri where the long fought case was decided in court after a trial lasting for three weeks.

The story of the kidnapping of the little McDonald girl begins about eight years ago when Mrs. McDonald and her children visited Mr. McDonald's brother, Morton, in Idaho. Because of some family difficulties Morton McDonald decided to keep the children and would not permit them to return home with their mother. Later, however, the older children were sent back here but Lois, the youngest, was kept by her uncle. The little girl's father, George McDonald, went to Idaho and made an effort to secure possession of the child but was not successful. Then began the long chase about the country, which has cost the parents of the child much anxiety as well as thousands of dollars of expense.

George McDonald made every effort to get possession of his daughter but about four years ago Mr. and Mrs. Morton McDonald and the child suddenly disappeared and nothing could be learned regarding their whereabouts.

Lois's father in the meantime made several trips to the western states in his endeavor to get some trace of his daughter and although he had the assistance of the entire police forces of several of the western states, nothing was heard about the little girl until about four months ago. At that time Mr. McDonald received a telegram from the Chief of Police in Kansas City, informing him that his daughter in company with Mr. and Mrs. Morton McDonald were in that city. George McDonald immediately left for Kansas but when he arrived there he found that his brother and the girl has disappeared again and were probably in Missouri. He immediately followed the trial and located them about three weeks ago in a little Missouri town.

Mr. McDonald immediately brought an action in the county court to prove that the little girl was his child. The court heard all the evidence regarding the case and after being convinced that Mr. and Mrs. Morton McDonald were holding the child illegally, the judge issued an order placing Lois again in the care of her father and mother.

After the court's order was issued Mr. and Mrs. McDonald started for St. Louis, but fearing that there might be further trouble they changed their route and came back through Kansas. However, no trouble was experienced and the little girl is again safely in her parents' home.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonald had not seen their daughter for four years until about three weeks ago when they located her in the little Missouri town. When the child was first kidnapped, she was six years old. During the past four years the girl's parents have received information frequently that their daughter had been murdered and a notice was published by Mr. McDonald offering a reward for the return of his daughter, if alive, or the recovery of her body if dead.

During the time that little Lois had been in the custody of her uncle and aunt, she has journeyed over many of the western states including Washington, Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, Kansas, New Mexico and Missouri. Mr. McDonald in his efforts to recover his daughter has made personal trips to nearly all of these states and at one time when he was informed that his daughter had been seen in Idaho, he visited every county in the state to inquire of the superintendents of the schools if his daughter had been placed in any of the schools. In making this trip he visited many towns located hundreds of miles from the nearest railroad station and many of the trips into the mountains were made on snow shoes. All of his work was in vain, however, as he was unable to find his daughter or to secure any information as to where she was being concealed.

For sometime the little girl was held in Denver but was later taken into the lonely mountainous regions of the Rockies. She has many interesting experiences to relate, regarding her long trip and said that she is glad that she is once more back home and that it will not be necessary for her to continue her long and frequent journeys. Lois is a very attractive little girl with pretty sparkling eyes and is exceptionally bright.

Mr. McDonald told a representative of this paper today that he had spent over $1200 in car fare alone in making the search for his little daughter. He has made a long hard fight to get possession of her again but feels assured that the matter is now forever settled. The order of the court in Missouri determines the legal guardianship of the child and it would be a difficult matter for Morton McDonald to ever again hold her under the claims which were alleged during the years she was in his possession.

MRS PING ARRAIGNED

Bedford Woman Taken to Jail to Await September Term of Court.

Mrs. Maude Ping, who killed her husband on the evening of April 24th at their Bedford home, was given a preliminary hearing Thursday. She waived examination and pleaded not guilty of the charge of murder placed against her. She was bound over to the circuit court and will await the opening of the September term.

After killing her husband she attempted to take her own life but was not successful. The self inflicted wound, however, was serious and since the time of the tragedy she had been confined in the Bedford hospital until Thursday morning, being unable to have a hearing before that time.

HOADLEY'S

MEMORIAL DAY TO BE OBSERVED HERE

Principal Addresses Will be Delivered by Judge O. H. Montgomery and Rev. F. M. Huckleberry.

GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION.

Rev. H. R. Booch Will Preach Memorial Sermon at St. Paul Church On Sunday, May 26.

The annual exercises for Memorial Day observed May 30, will be held in this city. The program which will be arranged by the Ellsworth Post and the Woman's Relief Corp has not been entirely completed, but will be similar to the ones which have been given on previous years.

The Memorial addresses will be delivered by Judge Oscar H. Montgomery and Rev. F. M. Huckleberry. The exercises will probably he held at the Opera house. Following the addresses the members of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. will march to the cemetery where the usual exercises will be conducted.

The Memorial sermon which is delivered each year on the Sunday preceding Memorial Day will be preached this year by Rev. H. R. Booch at the St. Paul church. The members of the Post and Relief Corp will also attend this service in a body.

In former years one of the features of the Memorial Day program was the reading of the Governor's Proclamation, but this will not have a place on the programs this year if the recommendations of the State G. A. R. officers are carried out. However, no action has been taken by the Ellsworth Post regarding the matter. The objection filed against the proclamation was because of its length. It was believed that if it were read it would make the program too long.

"Among those who have stood at the loom of human destiny and thrown the shuttle of fate, none has wrought so rich a tapestry for our National Patheon as the men of '61 to '65. Through the wrap of those fateful years swiftly there flashed the threads of boyhood's enthusiasm, manhood's stern adherence to duty, old age's fear of a broken or contracted union, the maiden's tear, the mother's agony all tinged with the rich, red blood of the martyrs.

Many fell into dreamless sleep ere destiny was done. Others left it broken in body and spirit. Some in the full glow of health came back to life's humdrum duties when they saw that the sum of all these sacrifices had wrought upon that tapestry the legend: Liberty and union, now and forever, one and inseparable.'

"The swift revolving years have left, but a broken and fast disappearing band, a remnant of that mighty body of workers. Wherever the flag floats, it floats because they kept the breezes free. Whenever men have the opportunity, they have it because of those toilers. He can not be an American unless his pulse quickens and his hat goes off when he remembers.

"It is good to strew flowers upon the immortal ashes of our heroes

LOCAL ATTORNEY ASKS FOR DAMAGES

F. W. Wesner Files Suit Against Mary L. Browning For $4,000 For Alleged Breach of Contract.

SETTLEMENT OF WILCOX ESTATE

Plaintiff Alleges That Defendant Employed Other Attorneys in Violation of Agreement.

F. W. Wesner, of this city, has filed in the Lawrence circuit court a damage suit against Mary L. Browning for $4,000. Mr. Wesner is represented by Underwood & Underwood of Bedford, and alleges that he made a written contract with the defendant that he was to represent her in the settlement of the estate of the late Solon Wilcox, of Fort Ritner.

That the plaintiff is now and has been for the last five years a practicing attorney and actively engaged in the practice of law in Jackson county. On the nineteenth day of November, 1908, the defendant represented to the plaintiff that she was the only heir at law, except the wife of Solon Wilcox and at the request of of the defendant this plaintiff entered into an agreement with her to represent her in settlement of her rights as such heir of said Solon Wilcox and agreed to pay to this plaintiff a sum of money equal to one fourth of what amount she might receive from the estate of said Wilcox, which said sum was to be paid the plaintiff in consideration of his services as such attorney in said matter.

Plaintiff alleges that said defendant represented to him that she was the illegitimate child of said Wilcox, that she anticipated legal proceedings to establish her right as such illegitimate child.

Plaintiff alleges that said Wilcox died testate in Lawrence county, state of Indiana, and that by terms of said will of Wilcox the defendant was given $5,000.

The plaintiff notified the defendant of his readiness and willingness to carry out the terms of said contract, but the defendant ignoring the said contract and in disregard thereof employed the firm of Boruff & Boruff, attorneys at law, to enter action in Lawrence circuit court, of state of Indiana, to prevent and resist the probate of last will and testament of Solon Wilcox. Said action was instituted by Boruff & Boruff and before a hearing was had thereon, the defendant and executor and other beneficiaries under said law affected a compromise of said defendant's interest as such illegitimate child by which she received $13,750, and real estate valued at $2,000, making a total of $15,750.

Plaintiff further alleges that he was prevented from carrying out his part of said contract by action of the defendant herein above set out, and that he was ready and willing at all times to do and perform said contract on his part to be performed by him and that by reason of action of defendant has been damaged in sum of $4000.

CHILDREN FOUND DEAD IN FEED BOX

KIDNAPPING WAS SUSPECTED.

Little Victims Had Fallen Head First Into Bin and Sinking in the Grain Perished.

Cincinnati, May 17.—The country-wide search for Robert and Urban Nichols, brothers, age six and four years, respectively, who mysteriously disappeared on April 29, came to an end today, when their bodies were found in a stable near their home here.

The bodies were found in a feedbox in the stables of which their father was in charge. It is believed the little victims were playing around the stable, fell into the feedbox head first and, sinking in the feed, perished. Their bodies were found by their father.

There had been wild rumors that the children had been kidnapped.

One of the places visited was the beet sugar fields of Michigan. A rumor had reached the police that the children had been kidnapped by Hungarians, and detectives went from this city to Michigan but returned empty handed.

Local officers were notified of the disappearance of the Nichols brothers and were informed that they were supposed to have been kidnapped.

MAY ENTER STATE MEET

Local High School Believe Prospects Good For Winning Next Year.

Elated over its success at the North Vernon Athletic meet the Seymour high school is already making arrangements to enter the state athletic meet next year. In order that the athletes of the local school be qualified to enter the state meet they must make a certain record in the various events. Schleter and Thomas who won the majority of points for the local school at North Vernon are eligible to enter the state meet this year but they will not take part as it is believed that the prospect for winning would be better in 1913.

It has been suggested that the local school plan a county meet for this city and that the high school winners be the representatives at the North Vernon meet next year. Those who were successful in winning prizes in the Southeastern Association would then be the representatives at the state meet. If the plans for the county meet are carried out as suggested the day upon which the events will occur will be in a nature of a holiday and all the schools in the county will be invited to send representatives. The object of the county meet is to create a greater interest in field events and to give Seymour's representatives some practice before they enter the North Vernon meet.

WOULD ABOLISH FARM TENANTRY

Socially Owned and Operated Farms Advocated.

AN INDUSTRIAL DEMOCRACY

This Also Is Advocated by Socialists in National Convention, Together With an Organized Effort Toward Scientific Discouragement of Militarism—Workers Also Are Warned to Stay Away From the Pacific Coast.

Indianapolis, May 17.—Nothing but minor changes were made in the platform of the Socialist national convention in session here from the utterances of four years ago. One of the new planks defines the attitude of the party toward farmers and the sale of farm products. Before the plank was presented the convention adopted a report of the farmers' committee calling for the ultimate establishment of socially owned and operated farms and the abolishment of tenantry. It is said that there may be a minority report of the platform committee in favor of the recognition of "industrial democracy" by the party, in order better to define the party's attitude toward industrial organization. The resolutions committee recommended that the national executive committee be instructed to secure the services of such a comrade or comrades as have made special study of war and militarism and that such comrade or comrades prepare special appropriate leaflets to distribute among soldiers, sailors, militia and police.

This was adopted after it had been announced that the Massachusetts legislature had passed a bill making it an offense to talk anti-militarism in Massachusetts. It was also recommended by the committee that the party adopt, as a policy to be observed by its representatives in office, the organization of workers in all departments under Socialist control so that each departemnt may obtain "an organized expression of the worker's point of view on administrative methods and conditions of work." The resolution was adopted.

Another resolution was adopted warning workers of the eastern and central states to stay away from the Pacific coast, since labor conditions there are intolerable.

MR. TAFT'S ATTITUDE

No Matter How Ohio Goes, He Is in the Fight to Stay.

Cleveland, May 17.—President Taft will be in the fight to the finish, whatever may be the outcome of the Ohio primaries. Your correspondent can make this statement on the highest authority. At the same time it can be said that President Taft believes he has his Ohio fight won and that his native state will stand by him at the polls next Tuesday.

The Roosevelt people, as part of the Ohio campaign, have been busy circulating reports that the president will step aside in the event of the Ohio contest going against him. Some of the president's own friends have been quoted as saying they believed he would be obliged to follow such a course in a final resort to defeat Roosevelt at Chicago. Mr. Taft himself, however, has never entertained a thought of retiring from the race. He said some time ago that only death could keep him out of the fight at Chicago, and his attitude is the same today as it was then. He will go into the Chicago convention ready to stand to the end and determined, if necessary, to put the responsibility for the present situation in the Republican party squarely on the shoulders of those who have created it.

MONEY TRUST PROBE NOW BEING PUSHED

Relation of Bankers to Coffee Prices Investigated.

Washington, May 17.—The money trust committee heard from Herman Seilcken of Crossman & Seilcken of New York, the largest green coffee dealers in the world, particulars of the participation of American bankers in the Brazilian coffee valorization scheme. Samuel Untermyer of counsel for the committee, examined Mr. Seilcken and developed that the National City bank, J. P. Morgan & Co., and the First National bank, all of New York, rendered financial assistance to the Brazilian government in its efforts to limit the production of coffee and the maintenance of prices at a figure profitable both to the Brazilian planters and the American and European coffee dealers. Mr. Seilcken's testimony was the first oral information that has been given the money trust committee.

Mr. Seilcken attributed patriotic motives to the National City bank for its interest in the valorization scheme, declaring that the aid given by this bank was of benefit to the United States in its commercial relations with Brazil. He doubted the propriety of the committee in questioning the action of foreign countries relative to their commerce, and as for his own part in the valorization scheme, he challenged the attorney general and all the attorneys in the country to discover anything illegal in his actions.

"My business has been pried into by the attorney general and by a grand jury, and my connection with this valorization scheme has been criticised by the counsel for this committee," said Mr. Seilcken.

"Don't you understand that we have a right to see if the money of our banking institutions is being used to increase prices to the consumers of the country?" asked Mr. Untermyer. Mr. Seilcken said he did not agree to that proposition.

Wonderful Archaeological Developments Reported From Egypt.

London, May 17.—Details of the season's result in exploration by the British school of archaeology in Egypt are described by Prof. Petrie as gigantic. An alabaster sphinx was found at Memphis twenty-six feet long and fourteen feet high, which weighed eighty tons. The face is as perfect as when it was carved, 1300 B. C.

Earthen fortress walls over 100 feet thick and a quarter of a mile across were discovered at Heliopolis. They probably date back to the early barbaric invasion.

A cemetery was discovered thirty miles south of Cairo which bears dates on the stones from the earliest historic age down to the period of the pyramids. Linen was found there of which some sheets went back to the eleventh dynasty. They were as white and as sweet as if they were just from the loom.

Tells How She Became Strong and Vigorous.

"When I see pale, puny children on the street I always wonder what their parents are doing, if anything, to build up their strength," said a well dressed man the other day.

Mary Lang, of Altoona, Pa., was one such child. Her story is told in one of her own letters. "Ever since childhood," she says, "I have been weak and delicate and my blood has been thin and poor. Many different forms of treatment did me no good but last spring I took Vinol and now I am so much stronger and better that I want you to know it. I don't know when I have felt so well and vigorous as I have since taking Vinol."

We only wish that every weak, rundown sickly person would realize that Vinol is the one best remedy to enrich the blood, build up the body and put the glow of health in pale cheeks. REGISTRY COSTS PROVE UNPOPULAR

CONDITION IN THE STATE.

"Joker" In the Law Makes It Advisable For the Republicans To Register on First Date.

(Indianapolis Star)

Reports on registration received by the Republican and Democratic state committees indicate that the first test of the new registration law, while expensive, was not entirely unsatisfactory. It develops that complaints against the new law are more bitter and noisy on the Democratic side than on the Republican side. This is found to be true in county after county, in spite of the fact that the statute is a Democratic measure.

Democrats are not complaining so much because they are put to unnecessary trouble and annoyance; they do not kick because they are obliged to register or lose their votes, but they do object with energy because the Democratic law is so drawn as to burden the taxpayers needlessly; because it is drawn to give machine workers of the Taggart political machine double pay for registration board service.

Democrats in the counties realize that a law carrying this plain and open political grab is sure to weaken the Democratic party before the people.

Republicans have the best of the first registration the state over. This is true in spite of the fact that the Democratic state central committee has been at work on the registration problem since last December, while the Republican state organization did very little to induce a large Republican outpouring of the electorate.

In spots over the state the Democrats gained by holding their county primaries or county conventions May 9, the day of the first registration. But on the whole, the Republicans had a decided advantage in getting their voters registered.

In Marion County many of the precinct registration places were kept open more than one day. The Democratic policy locally was to hold open the registration places beyond one day in Democratic precincts, and the Republican organization took measures to do likewise in Republican precincts.

It has developed that registration in Indiana is absolutely sure to cost the people far beyond the estimated sum of $100 to a precinct. The average for the May 9 registration is near $30 a precinct, and this does not include the cost of supplies, advertising, and many other items.

Most counties report that the light registration of May 9 makes it certain that the September and October registration periods will both be held the full three days provided for in the law. While many counties showed a registration May 9 of 65 to 75 per cent. of the voters, a few ranging even higher than 75 per cent., the run of the counties indicated a 50 per cent. registration, and the showing was such as to prove that much hard work and much time must be given to the succeeding registrations.

There is a big "joker" in the law under which the Democratic inspectors in Vanderburg and other counties refused to open registration places the second and third days, in Republican precincts, while holding open in Democratic precincts. As to the petition by five voters of the precinct the law reads as follows: "And shall remain in session, if necessary to accommodate the voters, during like hours of the next one or two succeeding days, when so requested in writing by five voters of the precinct."

"If necessary to accommodate the voters," is the "joker." The inspector is the authority on that subject. In Vanderburg county, as has been made plain by experience with the working of the law, the Democratic inspectors in Republican precincts found it easy to decide that it was not "necessary to accommodate" the Republican voters. In Democratic precincts they found, on the other hand, that extra days were "necessary to accommodate" the Democratic voters.

It is made plain by the May 9 experiment that Republican voters in Republican precincts in Indiana, where Democratic inspectors are in charge, will do well to register Friday, Sept. 6, or Monday, Oct. 7, and not put off action to the one or two days succeeding those dates.

Democrats are not well pleased, as a rule, by the result of the May registration. Not only were they compelled to listen to complaints against the cost of the registration law by men of their own party, but they were compelled to admit that they met marked difficulties and obstinate problems in the country precincts when they tried to induce the rural Democrats to register May 9. While the rural registration was light all around, at the same time it was notable that the Republicans were able to get a much larger proportion of their country voters to register than the Democrats.

Two important reasons are given for the refusal of Democratic farmers to take any interest in the May registration, in addition to the fact that the farmers were busy. It will be difficult to make the "dry" Democrat in the country see why he should either register or vote this year, if by his vote he is to keep Taggart and Fleming in power as the monopolists of offices, patronage and legislation.

Then again, this is a presidential year. Under Republican rule and the operation of Republican policies the Democratic farmer, along with all others, has enjoyed, and is enjoying an era of fair prices and just prosperity. He finds the Democrats assailing those policies. Democratic politicians can not arouse him to any great extent in the matter of registering.

While Republican voters laugh at the Democratic registration law, and while they resent the big expense and the political grab embodied in the law, they are generally bent on registering and on making themselves felt at election time. They do not propose to fail to go on record finally and effectively against the Taggart law and the Taggart game in Indiana. To vote they must register. They do not propose to lose their votes.

gone. It is equally good that our gratitude to God and to them for the preservation of the republic should be fittingly and feelingly shown by such an observance of Memorial Day as comforts with the dignity and solemnity of their work.

"On Thursday, May 30, 1912, let the people of Indiana re-dedicate their lives to the service of the republic and consecrate the hour thereof to tears for the dead and tender ministry of the living, heroes of the fratricidal war, without whose valor and sacrifices our civilization should be in vain."

Only a Fire Hero.

But the crowd cheered, as, with burned hands, he held up a small round box, "Fellows!" he shouted, "this Bucklen's Arnica Salve I hold, has everything beat for burns." Right! also for boils, ulcers, sores, pimples, eczema, cuts, sprains, bruises. Surest pile cure. It subdues inflammation, kills pain. Only 25 cents at The Andrews Drug Co., Seymour, Ind.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

A LIGHT IN THE WINDOW.

His name was Edmund Dunbar.

When Dunbar was a lad working in a factory late at night his mother always kept a light in the window for him. When he went on a long cruise as a sailor she kept the light burning, and when she died her last words were: "Tell my boy I will keep a light burning in heaven for him."

Therefore the song.

I should like to finish the story in accordance with the sentiment, but cannot.

Dunbar had an erratic career. He spent three years in the Minnesota penitentiary for bigamy and became a wanderer on the face of the earth, a vagabond.

When he appeared at Coffeyville he applied at the city jail for food and lodging. He died the same night, and letters found on his person identified him. He was buried in the paupers' graveyard, and recently what was left of his body was taken to the home of his childhood.

Crescendo diminuendo.

Such was the theme of Edmund Dunbar's life strain, but as factory boy, sailor, student, minister, convict and tramp it was mostly made up of minor chords.

On the stormy night of his death in a common "calaboose" did his spirit as it beat its wings on the battered edge of a worn and weary body look for and see the light in the window?

Let us hope so.

Dunbar was at one time a brilliant minister, an evangelist of unusual power, who stirred whole communities and always struck the sure note of human interest.

But there was a bad streak somewhere in his makeup.

He was convicted and sent to prison for miscellaneous marrying and afterward went to pieces morally and degenerated into a common tramp.

Is genius aberration?

Or is it true, as Stephenson hints in his "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," that each of us is a double; that all of us, genius or otherwise, have within us two distinct natures?

Is man both brute and angel?

And is it only the angel that is within us that sees the light in the window?

IMPORTANCE OF HEALTHY KIDNEYS.

Seymour Readers Should Learn to Keep the Kidneys Well.

The kidneys have a big work to do. All the blood in the body is coursing through the kidneys constantly to be freed of poisonous matter. It is a heavy enough task when the kidneys are well, but a cold, chill, fever or some thoughtless exposure is likely to irritate, inflame and congest the kidneys and interrupt the purifying work.

Then the aching begins, and is usually accompanied by some irregularity of the urine—too frequent passages, sediment or retention. Thousands testify to the wonderful merit of Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy for the kidneys only, that has been used in kidney troubles 75 years. You will make no mistake in following this Seymour citizen's advice.

A. P. Williams, 217 S. Broadway Seymour, Ind., says: "I suffered intensely from kidney and bladder complaint and was unable to get permanent relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. This remedy restored my kidneys to a normal condition and improved my health wonderfully."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The Elevator is Now Ready and At Your Service

The removal of the furniture department to the third floor is about completed. We find several lines of furniture which we expect to discontinue and more valuable lines used instead; therefore, we must make concessions in prices to move such rapidly. Price will be no object to clear our floor of all Voss' and Willman's stocks, and give this department a popular price, up-to-the-minute in style, workmanship, quality and finish, as is the success in large city department stores. The principle of volume, small profits, and least operating expense brings these results.

In reconstructing the interior of our store, we find very little space left for China, Bric-a-Brac, Glassware, Tin and Granite Ware. We are going to discontinue this dapartment at once. Closing out prices will prevail.

THE PRESIDENT'S POSITION

President Taft in his Cleveland address makes an explanation of his unprecedented action in appearing on the political stump in his own behalf as a candidate for president of the United States. He declared that the unusual proceedure was due to the personalities indulged by his predecessor, Col. Roosevelt. In his campaign the President makes it clear that in his opinion he was forced to take the stump in order to defend himself against the alleged unfounded accusations which have been made against him by the former president.

It seems to us that the President in his exalted position of honor and dignity should have refrained from entering into a personal campaign with Mr. Roosevelt. But yet, after all the occupant of the president's chair is but a man and it is probable that most any of us would have adopted the same tactics which are used by Mr. Taft in the present campaign. The President at first wisely kept out of the battle himself and instructed his leaders that personal attacks should not be made upon Col. Roosevelt and that reference only to Colonel's public record should be made. But when Mr. Roosevelt very unwisely began the free use of personalities the President believed he was justified in going before the people and answering the accusations and presenting what he believed to be the truth.

There can be no denial of the fact that President Taft has made an excellent record as the chief executive of the United States and because of this record alone he is entitled to reelection by his party. It is true there have been many complaints registered against President Taft, but this would be expected as many of the principal questions which were left to him to decide were those about which there was a wide difference of opinion. Not since the time of Lincoln has the president of the United States been confronted with so many governmental problems, the solution of which involved such a wide variance of opinion, as have arisen during Taft's term of office. It is only natural that the people who did not believe the same way as the President regarding such questions should consider his decisions wrong and would freely express their opinions. Mr. Taft has been a president for the people and has ably guarded the public's interest. The past three years have been filled with the governmental complexities and while the President may not have been able to secure all the legislation which he desired he has succeeded in bringing about many reforms the value of which will long be remembered after he retires from public life.

Col. Roosevelt in his bitter campaign has not only made many enemies but has lost many of his former supporters. The people who objected to Taft taking the stump in his own behalf are just are bitterly opposed to Roosevelt entering into a personal campaign, and the opposition to Roosevelt upon this ground is just as strong as that registered against the President.

There seems to be several opinions as to the best way in which to construct the concrete streets and the council should be slow and use utmost care in giving the final specifications. It is said that there is greater danger of concrete cracking in a sandy soil such as is found here and that proper provisions for expansion must be made if the improvement is the greatest success. Many persons who have given the subject consideration are of the belief that proper provisions are not being made for expansion in the present specifications and that expansion cracks should be closer together than called for under the specifications. There is probably very little question as to the durability of concrete when properly constructed but the question of expansion will have much effect upon the durability of the street and the council should be assured that the present specifications are correct before they permit the work to be completed.

MAY FESTIVAL

Excellent Musical Program Given Thursday Evening.

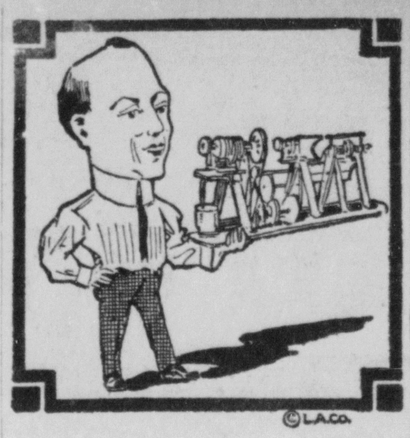

The May Festival given by the pupils of the Seventh and Eighth grades of the public schools Thursday night at the high school gymnasium was a complete success. The program consisted of some of the best music and was given with precision and enthusiasm. The songs met with the approval of the audience as was shown by the hearty encores and several of the numbers were repeated.

The program was arranged under the direction of the Prof. H. C. Gast, supervisor of music of the public schools, and was a compliment to the work which is being accomplished in that department. Miss Helen Hadley was the accompanist and exhibited remarkable talent.

"The Miserere" from Il Trovatore was exceptionally fine and was deserving of the applause accorded. The selection is a heavy piece of music but was well rendered. The readings of Miss Elizabeth Reinhart were greatly appreciated. The high school orchestra also gave a number of excellent selections.

A HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR

A Little Sage and Sulphur Makes Gray Hair Vanish—A Remedy for All Hair Troubles

Who does not know the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

If you have dandruff, or if your hair is thin or turning gray, get a bottle of this remedy from your druggist to-day, and see what it will do for you.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

Sunday School Lesson

Lesson VII. May 19.

THE OLD LAW AND THE NEW LIFE. Matt. 5 : 17-26.

GOLDEN TEXT.—He that loveth his neighbor hath fulfilled the law. Rom. 13 : 8. R. V.

The gospel by Matthew is in a special sense the gospel of the kingdom, and the key word of the kingdom is righteousness, absolutely perfect according to the interpretation of the commandments here given by our Lord, from which we learn that a sinful look breaks a command as much as an act, and from Jas. ii, 10, we learn that "whosoever shall keep the whole law and yet offend in one point is guilty of all." It must be an inward righteousness of the heart, not like that of the Pharisees, of whom our Lord said that, although they appeared righteous outwardly to men, they were within full of hypocrisy and iniquity, outwardly whited sepulchers, inwardly all uncleanness (Matt. xxiii, 25-28). In our lesson He says that in no case can such righteousness enter the kingdom (verse 20), and in Isa. lxiv, 6, we are told that all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags. Concerning the kind that God requires we are told, "There is none righteous—no not one," and when we are brought face to face with the law every mouth is stopped and all the world guilty before God (Rom. iii, 10, 19). Men have many standards. God has but one, called "the righteousness of God" (Rom. iii, 5, 22; x, 3; II Cor. v, 21). In verse 17 of our lesson He said that He came to fulfill the law and the prophets, and to John the Baptist He said, "It becometh us to fulfill all righteousness" (iii, 15). There was neither flaw nor failure in His righteousness. He could truthfully say, "I do always those things that please the Father," and the Father testified concerning Him, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased" (John viii, 29; Matt iii, 17; xvii, 5). He was the Lamb without blemish and without spot. He did no sin; He knew no sin; He was holy, harmless, undefiled and separate from sinners (I Pet. i, 19; ii, 22; II Cor. v, 21; Heb. vii, 26). His was righteousness indeed, and nothing short of His perfect righteousness can enable any one to appear before God acceptably. The case on our side is therefore utterly hopeless as far as any efforts of ours are concerned, for "by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in His sight" (Rom. iii, 20). The very best that the very best man can do comes far short of His perfect righteousness. What a gloomy outlook it would be if He had not devised means whereby we need not be driven away from Him (II Sam. xiv, 14). Not only did the Son of God give in His life a sample of the perfect righteousness which God requires; but, having no sin of His own, He bare our sins in His own body on the tree. There was laid on Him the iniquity of us all. He was made a sin offering for us, and when we plead guilty and receive Him we become accepted in Him and He is accepted for us, as it is written in the law concerning the guilty man and his perfect offering, "It shall be accepted for him" (Lev. i, 4). The priest had no need to examine the man—he pleaded guilty—but he did examine the sacrifice, and if it was without blemish, according to the law, the guilty man identifying himself with his perfect sacrifice by laying his hand upon it was accepted because of his sacrifice, and the blood was shed, the life laid down, for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul (Lev. xvii, 11; Heb. ix, 22). What a wonderful redemption it is, and wholly of the Lord. He took my place as a guilty one and suffered in my stead, making an end of my sins, that I might take His place before God, clothed with His righteousness. How wonderfully beautifully are such words as "justified freely by His grace;" "made unto us wisdom, righteousness, sanctification, redemption;" "in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins." Yet there are multitudes in so called Christian lands, churchgoers and church members, who, being ignorant of God's righteousness and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves to the righteousness of God, not understanding that Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth (Rom. x, 3, 4; iii, 24; I Cor. i, 30; II Cor. v, 21; Eph. i, 6, 7). If our eyes have been opened to see these glorious truths, let us joyfully sing, "I will greatly rejoice in the Lord; my soul shall be joyful in my God, for He hath clothed me with the garment of salvation, He hath covered me with the robe of righteousness" (Isa. lxi, 10). As quickly as Joshua, the high priest, lost his filthy garments and the devil for a companion and received beautiful raiment and the Lord for his friend (Zech. iii, 1-5), so quickly may any sinner who is ready to plead guilty and receive as a free gift the perfect righteousness of God in Christ pass from death to life and begin to live the new and blessed life of a child of the kingdom, a joint heir with Christ, proving to others by such love as that of last lesson that God is love and not willing that any should perish (I John iv, 8, 16; II Pet. iii, 9).

THE LESSON QUIZ.

May 19, 1912.

[Copyright, 1911, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.]

Golden Text—He that loveth his neighbor hath fulfilled the law. Rom. xiii:8.

(1.) Verses 17-18—In what sense did Jesus mean that the law was not to be destroyed until all be fulfilled?

(2.) What, if any, reason is there to believe that Jesus did not mean that the law of Moses was to last forever?

(3.) How did Christ fulfill every "jot and tittle" of the law of Moses, spiritual, moral, political and ceremonial?

(4.) Verse 19—What was the final end, purpose or object of the commandments of Moses?

(5.) If a disciple of Christ at that time had taught against the least of the Old Testament commandments what would he have lost thereby?

(6.) If a disciple of Christ now teaches against the keeping of the ceremonial law or the moral law as exemplified by the "eye for an eye" and the "tooth for a tooth" commandments of the Old Testament, how does God regard him?

(7.) Verse 20—What did Christ mean by "the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees?"

(8.) If a man does an outward good deed for the sake of custom or policy or to be seen of men that he would not do from his own choice, how is his deed regarded by God?

(9.) How would you characterize two men, one whose motives are pure, but who blunders in carrying them out and one whose motives are impure but who acts outwardly in a faultless manner?

(10.) Does righteousness consist in motives or in actions, and why? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(11.) Verses 21-22—The law of Moses, like human law now, could only punish when an outward crime had actually been committed. How does the law here given by Jesus differ from that?

(12.) If a man secretly plans a murder and lacks the opportunity of committing it he is innocent at law. Would you say that he is just as guilty before God as if he had committed it? Why?

(13.) Does Christ teach that wicked anger or hatred is regarded by God as murder, and, if not, what does he mean? (See I John iii:15.)

(14.) What does Jesus here mean by the various degrees of punishment represented by the "judgment," the "council" and "hell fire?"

(15.) Verses 23-26—Why is it impossible to worship or be in harmony with God if we bear a grudge against any person?

S.S.S. CURES SKIN DISEASES

The cause of all skin diseases can be traced to some humor or acid in the blood; the cuticle is always healthy where the circulation is free from impurities. When the blood is infected with acrid or unhealthy matter it cannot perform its natural work of nourishing the skin, regulating its temperature and preserving its normal softness, pliability and healthfulness. Instead it irritates and inflames the delicate fibres and tissues around the pores and glands and produces some of the many forms of skin disease. The itching and stinging so often accompanying skin affections are produced by the deposit from the blood of the acrid humors with which it is filled, into the sensitive membranous flesh lying just beneath the outer covering, and surrounding the countless nerves, pores and glands. This explains why scratching the outer skin affords no relief from the itching and burning. S. S. S. cures Skin Diseases of every character by purifying the blood. It goes down into the circulation and removes the humors or acids which are causing the trouble, builds up the weak, acrid blood, and permanently cures every variety of skin affection. Local applications can only soothe; they never cure because they do not reach the blood. S. S. S. goes right into the circulation, reaches the trouble and cures it by removing the cause. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice free to all who write.

GARY A STICKLER FOR HIGH PRICES

Maintenance of Rates Should Be Held Dearer Than Life.

THAT WAS HIS VIEW OF IT

Government's Inquiry Into the Workings of the Steel Trust Brings Out an Interesting Revelation Regarding Some of the Things Besides "Sealing Wax and Kings" Talked of at the Now Justly Famous Gary Dinners.

New York, May 17.—In the testimoney at the hearings in the steel suit, the famous Gary dinners at the Waldorf-Astoria for the discussion of steel prices figured to a considerable extent. John A. Topping, chairman of the Republican Iron and Steel company, was the witness from whom facts were drawn about the dinners. He declared that it was only courtesy which made him announce to the others that he was going to cut prices not long ago, and that when Judge Gary, getting up at one of his dinners, asserted that the maintenance of prices should be dearer than life itself, he (Mr. Topping) for one did not think so.

"Besides," said Topping, "I allowed the usual discount for post-prandial utterances."

Topping, under cross-examination of Richard Lindabury, gave further facts about the Tennessee Coal and Iron company and said that at the time it was bought by the steel corporation it produced 1.7 per cent of all the steel made here and that it cost more to make steel rails in Alabama previous to 1907 than anywhere else in the country. As to the Republic company, he said it had an ore supply of about 128,000,000 tons in Alabama and the Lake Superior district which would last about twenty-five years. He said that he regarded the steel corporation's supply as being none too large. Coming then to Mr. Topping's declaration of a year ago, which led to the war in steel prices, Mr. Lindabury brought out the fact that it was made at a directors' meeting of the Iron and Steel Institute, an organization which it has been supposed had chiefly to do with the welfare of steel workers and not with prices. The meeting was held on May 24, 1911, and Topping mentioned as among the other directors of the institute present beside himself: President Farrell of the steel corporation; E. A. S. Clarke of the Lackawanna; W. L. King of Jones & Laughlin; James Campbell of the Youngstown Steel and Iron company; Judge Gary and a few more. He said he had first informed Judge Gary of his decision to cut prices.

"Why did you inform Judge Gary?" asked Mr. Lindabury.

"As a matter of business courtesy," replied Topping, who said that he felt morally obligated to give such notice.

"I stated," he added, "that conditions in the trade were such as to lead me to reduce prices and that I proposed to do so. There was no discussion that I can remember. Naturally they regretted that I should have to do so, and said so."

Asked what he meant by feeling morally obligated, Mr. Topping said: "As a matter of common decency in the exchange of business information."

Maiden Voyage Disastrous.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 17.—While running at fifteen knots an hour in a dense fog, the giant submarine Lunar, newest leviathan of the federal government, ran afoul off Longport, and is slowly drifting broadside toward shore. Fourteen of her crew have been brought ashore. Five others, including Captain Dannehauser, who was commanding the vessel on her maiden voyage to turn her over to the navy officials, are still aboard, risking their lives in a desperate attempt to save the craft.

GERM LADEN DUST CAUSES CATARRH

Ely's Cream Balm Kills the Deadly Catarrh Germs. No Stomach Dosing.

Catarrh, which is bad enough in itself, often results in loss of taste, smell and hearing, and leads to serious throat and lung troubles if not promptly checked. The seat of catarrh is usually in the back of the nose, and its natural course is downward, into the throat and thence to the lungs.

Don't take any chances. If you have any symptoms of catarrh—stuffed up feeling in the head, nasty discharge from the nose, sore throat, or dry, hacking cough, get a fifty cent bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist, and begin the treatment at once.

This remedy is not a "burning out" or "drying up" process. It is simply a cleansing, healing, antiseptic Balm, taken through the nostrils back into the head and throat where it instantly reaches the seat of the trouble. That's the only way to effectually and permanently cure catarrh.

Catarrh makes you offensive to yourself and friends. Start using Ely's Cream Balm to-day, and in a short time you will be permanently cured of this nasty, disgusting disease.

REV. C. V. T. RICHESON.

Confessed Murderer Sentenced to Die During Week of May 19.

PREACHER RICHESON FACES FELON'S DOOM

Will Be Sent to Electric Chair Early Next Week.

Boston, May 17.—Governor Foss, after reading the opinions of the alienists who examined the Rev. C. V. T. Richeson, caused the announcement to be made that executive clemency would not be extended and the prisoner must die. Richeson will be executed some time next week, that is, after midnight on Sunday. The exact time when he will be put to death by electricity is a matter of discretion with General Bridges, warden of the state prison. He is allowed the entire week to follow the instructions of the court, but has not been in the habit of delaying his unpleasant tasks later than Tuesday morning of the seven-day period.

So it is likely that the slayer of Avis Linnell, the central figure in New England's most startling murder case of recent years, will pay the penalty on either Monday or Tuesday morning about 1 o'clock.

Governor Foss' statement in regard to the case shows that the opinions of all the alienists agree that Richeson was not insane when he committed the crime, and is not at the present time. Richeson was sentenced upon his own confession and without a trial.

EIGHT NEW BISHOPS

Will Be Elected by Methodist Episcopal General Conference.

Minneapolis, May 17.—The episcopacy committee of the Methodist Episcopal church recommended the election of eight new bishops of the church. The report was adopted by the conference practically without discussion. Altogether some 150 candidates for the eight bishoprics will be voted for.

On the first ballot Homer C. Stuntz, assistant corresponding secretary of the board of foreign missions, New York, was elected bishop.

Just What May This Mean?

Toledo, O., May 17.—Emphasizing his recent statement that he has now won a majority of the Republican convention delegates and will be nominated at Chicago, Colonel Roosevelt declares that if the Taft delegates who have been elected, as he charges by fraud in Michigan, Indiana, Kentucky and Missouri and many of the southern states are seated by the national committee, he is thereby "relieved of all duty to or respect of any convention in which these men exercise a part."

MME. NAVATRIL GETS CHILDREN

IT WAS A JOYOUS MEETING

Youngsters Whose Runaway Father Cast Them Into a Lifeboat Just Before He Went Down With Titanic, Fell Into Good Hands and Were Cherished Tenderly Until Their Mother Could Arrive From Nice.

New York, May 17.—The last act of a real French triangle play to whose climax no censor could possibly object, took place in the nurses' parlor of the Children's Society rooms, when Lolo and Lump got back their mother.

Nobody was present save Marielle Navatril and the two crinkly haired, fat legged babies who were carried from Nice on Easter Sunday by their runaway father, tossed into a lifeboat from the Titanic, on which that father died, brought to New York by Miss Margaret Hays, pictured wherever newspapers go, and at length claimed by the young mother in a cable message—"They are mine."

Mme. Navatril, arriving from France on the Oceanic, her mourning veil not hiding the fact that the good looks of Lolo and Lump run in the family, sped to the Children's Society in a taxicab that had forgotten all it knew about speed laws. Up in the nurses' parlor a door was opened and those who had accompanied the young Italian woman from the pier stood back. In the middle of the big room stood Lolo, who is four years old, and his little brother Lump, who is two. Both had picture books which they dropped when the knob began to turn. Lolo clutched Lump and dragged him toward the door of great expectations, but running as hard as they could on those dimpled small legs, they did not begin to meet their mother half way.

How would any mother meet her only children who had been lost for six weeks and found, no matter what the manner of their finding? It was just that way with the reunited family from the Mediterranean. There were cries, "My children! My babies!" that could be heard out in the corridor, where Miss Hays and her father and Rose Bruno, Mme. Navatril's Philadelphia cousin, and Superintendent Walsh of the Children's Aid Society, and ever so many reporters and young men with anxious cameras stood waiting. And there were answering cries much shriller, "Mamma, mamma," as the pink frocked adventurers were gathered in. Oh, yes, there were tears.

Mme. Navatril was frankly drawing a handkerchief across her eyes whenever a hand was free. The man of the family—Lolo—he gulped and tried hard to measure up to his new responsibilities, but when the mother knelt right down on the floor and hugged the brothers so tight that the three dark heads seemed as one, Lolo went all to pieces and howled his emotions in every key.

When Aunt Rose from Philadelphia and Nurse Graham stole into the room the mother had both children in her lap and was being introduced to important faunal information on the first page of Lolo's picture book.

Mme. Navatril did not care to mention the episode from which Lolo and Lump emerged as the "Titanic waifs," nor did she speak of their father, whom she married five years ago, when she was sixteen, and who under the name of a friend, Louis Hoffman, took them away and tried to bring them to America. As Lolo and Lump they have been known, for that is how the names that Lolo gave sounded to Miss Hays. But take it from their mother, they really are Michel and Edmond. The nickname of Michel is Lolo, all right, but to the mother Edmond is Monmon, and how it came about that he should be called Lump she cannot understand, but she says America is just as queer as it is lovable. The reunited trio will sail for Nice tomorrow.

Dr. Matthews Won Easily.

Louisville, May 17.—The Rev. Dr. Mark Allison Matthews, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Seattle, was elected moderator of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States of America on the first ballot, receiving fifteen votes more than a majority and 261 more votes than his nearest competitor.

WANTS ALL TO JOIN

Indianapolis, May 17.—Invitations have been sent from the office of Mayor Shank to the mayors of all Indiana cities asking them to attend the municipal parade on the afternoon of May 24. An effort will be made to obtain sufficient automobiles for all the visitors to ride in the parade.

Owing to the fact that a number of Indiana cities at this time contemplate installing motor fire apparatus and police automobiles, it is believed the parade will be of exceptional interest to outside officials. This city is said to be further advanced in the use of automobiles for municipal purposes than any other city of similar size in the United States.

HARRY REPUDIATES EVELYN'S BABY BOY

Matteawan Attendants Say Story Is Ridiculous.

Fishkill Landing, N. Y., May 17.—In the last few days, says an attendant at the Matteawan state hospital, Harry Thaw has talked with him a great deal about the newspaper stories to the effect that he is the father of a baby boy born to Evelyn Thaw twenty-one months ago in Hamburg, Germany. The attendant says Thaw denies absolutely that he is the father of the child and uses his exact words in saying:

"I know nothing of any child and had never heard of any until the announcement a few days ago in the New York newspapers.

Evelyn, he says, never mentioned the advent of a child when she visited him at the hospital. Continuing, the attendant said Thaw remarked: "Her last visit was over a year ago, and at that time I talked with her only a few minutes and then in the presence of an attendant."

Her previous visit, Thaw says, was on Thanksgiving day, three years ago, when she remained about half an hour at the hospital, coming from New York on one train and returning on the next. This visit was five months after the hearing at White Plains. Thaw further states, according to this attendant:

"This is a trumped up deal to help defeat my chances of being released from Matteawan, and if it is it has failed because more than a hundred persons can deny the possibility of such a thing being true."

Another Postoffice Robbed.

Evansville, Ind., May 17.—Cracksmen got $100 in cash and $150 in stamps at the Newburg postoffice, ten miles east of this city. They broke open the safe with a sledge hammer. After looting the safe the burglars stole a horse and buggy and escaped. There are no clues.

Dixon Renominated For Congress.

Greensburg, Ind., May 17.—Lincoln W. Dixon of North Vernon was nominated for congress by acclamation here at the Fourth district Democratic convention. One hundred and forty-one delegates, representing eleven counties, were present.

Richmond, Ind., May 17.—Cambridge City will continue a dry town for some tiem to come, a ruling having been made by Judge Fox, saying that the remonstrators had made their case.

HOW TO SUCCEED.

During the last few years, conditions in all lines of business, even professional life, have changed so completely that every man is waking up to the fact that in order to win success he must specialize and learn to do some one thing and do it well.

So it is with any article that is sold to the people. It must have genuine merit or no amount of advertising will maintain the demand for the article.

For many years we have watched with much interest the remarkable record maintained by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy. From the very beginning the proprietors had so much confidence in it that they invited everyone to test it, free of cost, before purchasing.

It is a physician's prescription.

They have on file thousands of letters received from former sufferers who are now enjoying good health as a result of its use.

However, if you wish first to try a sample bottle, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and mention this paper. They will gladly forward you a sample bottle by mail, absolutely free.

Prove What Swamp-Root Will Do For You.

Send to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. It will convince anyone. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling all about the kidneys and bladder. When writing, be sure and mention the Seymour Daily Republican. Regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

For Women Who Care

Of course you use an antiseptic in your family and in the care of your own person, and you want the best.

Instead of what you have been using such as liquid or tablet antiseptics or peroxide, won't you please try Paxtine, a concentrated antiseptic powder to be dissolved in water as needed.

Paxtine is more economical, more cleansing, more germicidal and more healing than anything you ever used.

Paxtine ANTISEPTIC

In the toilet—to cleanse and whiten the teeth, remove tartar and prevent decay. To disinfect the mouth, destroy disease germs, and purify the breath. To keep artificial teeth and bridgework clean and odorless. To remove nicotine from the teeth and purify the breath after smoking. To eradicate perspiration odors by sponge bathing.

As a medicinal agent for local treatment of feminine ills where pelvic catarrh, inflammation and ulceration exist, nothing equals hot douches of Paxtine. For ten years the Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co. has been regularly advising their patients to use it because of its extraordinary cleansing, healing and germicidal power. For this purpose alone Paxtine is worth its weight in gold. Also for nasal catarrh, sore throat, inflamed eyes, cuts and wounds. All druggists, 25 and 50 cents a box. Trial box and testimony of 31 women free on request.

...breadth Harry—Adventures in Wizzle-Wiz

...H WAS CHAGRINNED WHEN HE FOUND ...AD BELINDA ON THE STRING WOULD BE ...ORD. HE WAS SIMPLY KERFLUMMOXED.

AND WHEN THE KING CAME AROUND IN THE MORNING TO HAVE OUR HERO EXECUTED AND FOUND HIS CHIEF JAILER HORS DE COMBAT AND THE BIRD FLOWN HIS FEELINGS WERE SCRAMBLED.

WHAT CHANCE HAS OUR HERO AGAINST THIS QUARTET OF FOXY GAZABOS? HERE'S THE KING, THE PRIME MINISTER, RUDOLPH, AND THE SLICKEST SLEUTH IN THE LAND ARRAYED AGAINST HIM.

FRITZ, THE FOXY FERRET IS NO ORDINARY SLEUTH, AS YOU CAN EASILY SEE BY WATCHING HIS METHODS. ALREADY HE HAS DISCERNED STRANGE ATMOSPHERIC DISTURBANCES.

...ITZ. HE WHIFFS THE GENTLE AROMA ...AL EXTREMITIES AND NO OTHER PER- ...WEAR SHOELEATHER EXCEPT——

WE SUSPECT THAT THE COURSE OF TRUE LOVE IS GOING TO GET SOME BUMPS SO LET US HAVE A PEEK AT OUR HAPPY COUPLE BEFORE THE JOLTS ARRIVE.

IT SIMPLY HAD TO BE! THERE'S NO ELUDING THAT GIMLET-EYED FERRET, AND NOW OUR HERO AND HEROINE ARE ONCE MORE IN THE TOILS OF THE ARCH FIEND.

BUT JUST THEN A TERRIBLE THING HAPPENED!!! (YOU'LL SEE WHAT NEXT WEEK)

TELL HER!
...gravating to have ...you're going to the ...
...is. I always set ...sad.

Mrs. Rummage

STEADFAST

The Loafer—Yus, lidy. I'm wot they call one o' the pioneers of the movement. I went on strike twenty-three years ago, lidy, and I ain't never give in yet.
